Whether you are growing in the mainland, , or in Hong Kong, Taiwan and other areas, , , as long as you look at Chinese, most of them will not miss “the slogan "Just Cause of the Palestinian People", , or similar different words. The modern evolution of the world, , combined with the constant venting of these slogans,, will cause you to be puzzled or doubted fairness , and justice, or to have sympathy for one race,, while at the same time disgusting with the other opposing races. However, since it is repeated deliberate propaganda,, it will inevitably leak out a lot of flaws and logical confusion, , as a person who is generally the mentality of the flock, , this is not a problem. But for those with an open mind and a normal mind,, it is an opportunity or a challenge , to become a window into human nature, history and society. The Hamas group in the Gaza corridor last weekend issued a terrorist attack on civilians, , and Israel immediately countered, ,once again stirring up the debate over whether to justice in the world.。

, It’s better to see it than to see it, that’s the reason. When I set foot on this disputed land in recent years, many long-term puzzled questions swept away. In the sense of the phrase “just cause for the Palestinian people,” , the intention is rather cunning or manifestly deceptive. Historically and legally, , the term “Palestine” was most widely used in the British-occupied period, , officially opened ,in 1918, including Jews, Arabs, originals and other residents. Jews at the time also held British passports for Palestine. , For thousands of years, it has been barren and arid, , making it difficult to sustain more than a million people. Some nations were annihilated or assimilated, , and the beauty was forgotten by the world but exalted by the religious world,, because she was the birthplace of the Bible and the Jews. Hundreds of years later,, other derived religions, , the strong preaching master pedaled the Temple Mount in his previous life, , so today there is a large building of the golden roof.

What is the “just cause of the Palestinian people”?? Traditionally and legally, , the Palestinian people simply cannot be equated with the Arabs, because there was never an Arab state in the British-occupied Palestinian area, and this is the birthplace of the ancient Jewish country, which is recognized in human history. When the "Palestine" was partitioned in 1946, , , how unusual was it that there were more Arabs than Jews, and that there were more bosses than the bosses? But the Arab aristocracy around , them was gone, and they were unwilling to recognize the status of the Jews , and began to drive out Arab refugees to seize territory. The large return of the Jews , to business restored it to the nourishment of milk and honey, 美地”, which in turn attracted countless Arab poor people to seek gold.

After the Jews established the State of Israel on May 14, 1948, , the upper Arab states , were pregnant and delayed in establishing a state, , even though they had the best land. “The so-called "State of Palestine" finally declared its independence on November 15, 1988. So this ““state” is currently dominated by Arabs, , but within the effective jurisdiction of the State of Israel. There ”are countless factions in the "Pakistan", representing the interests of different classes and the surrounding countries. But more than years ago, there was a chant of support for the “just cause of the Palestinian people,” and the slogan has not changed.。This is a deliberate misdirection of the people, , as if the Palestinian people are the Arabs around them. When it is found that the noble ““cause" is a lie story, ,there is no such thing as justice, , and behind it must be the evil trick of the devil's master.。

The current Israeli-Palestinian conflict is primarily a territorial issue , and the biggest point of lies. Pakistan, , Arab world, , several Iron Curtain countries, even in the Western network, There is a large number of ““Pakistan" ”territorial changes map (the four green charts below), this map information and deception is huge: from 1946 to the present, , all the green has been gradually robbed by the State of Israel can not But lies can only deceive the majority of the lower middle and middle classes of the Arab world, the pink world and the ignorant world of the other people. Recently because of the war, someone made a truth map under the green map, , comparing them up and down, , at a glance. Compared with history, , it is not difficult to find that "Pakistan" is a fake and empty veteran, , which belongs to the category of extreme scoundrel. So , it is not surprising that an anti-human terrorist organization such as Hamas was created.

I believe that most of the Chinese who have not been to Israel have never seen “”the original ““territorial change map" of "Pakistan". This is the “starting point for understanding the so-called “Israeli-Palestinian conflict” and the foundation lesson of the “just cause.” Some people may think that this picture is a Jewish conspiracy,, created by the West. For a long time,, this Pakistani country was violated by Israel to encroach on the Internet, , and no one seems to have defended it, ,but I inadvertently discovered the source of the fake.

Illegal Israeli Colonial Settlements
المستوطنات الاستعمارية الإسرائيلية غير الشرعية
Gli insediamenti coloniali illegali israeliani

After the establishment of the State of Israel, , from the next day, , there have been more than five large-scale wars, , which can be said to be wars fought by hundreds of millions of people against hundreds of thousands of people. But the stronger the Israeli war, , the more it created many battlefield miracles. Many“The Arabs of Allah are indeed afraid, , knowing that , they are not their opponents, and suspecting that Allah has stood in each other’s place. In the early years, Jordan and Egypt were unconvinced,, and their occupation formed the two Arab districts of the present-day West Bank and Gaza. But , in the 1967 Middle East war, Israel took the opportunity to drive out the two countries' armies , and control almost all of Egypt's Sinai Peninsula. But for the sake of the peace plan, Israel eventually agreed to limited autonomy for the two regional gradings.

Israel has always recognized the right of residence , of the Arabs, while the Arabs have always recognized the status of the Jews. Arafat also lied ,that the Arabs were the natives of Canaan. Later genetic studies also confirmed , that the so-called Palestinians now , came from the surrounding Arabs. Jordan and Egypt have recognized Israel’s status and improved relations because of the peace plan, but have torn apart Arab countries. In the Israeli army withdrew from Gaza settlements and the IDF. It is said that Saudi Arabia and Israel are about to improve relations, which will of course change the interests of the upper Arab elite and touch the centripetal force of the people at the bottom, which is undoubtedly one of the motives of the Hamas terrorist attack in Gaza.

In the area of travel, , especially in the Arab areas, , you can see a lot of very luxurious houses, , and in the Jewish settlements there is not much difference. The local Chinese told me ,that the gap between the rich and the poor of the Arabs is very large. The lower Arabs were controlled by the upper classes,, especially by using religion , to demagogue the hearts of the people. On the contrary, in the Jewish region, , there is not much difference from the Western world,, and society , , pays great attention to fairness, freedom and the rule of law, especially the education of young people. Develop independent thinking ability from an early age, , be polite, ,and be sincere to people. While many Arab teenagers receive hate education, , stone throwing is the most common lesson. Western media focused on reporting on the human rights situation in Arab areas,, while Jews struggled to protect the safety of their citizens. These citizens also include Arab citizens and green card holders, , with as many as 1-2 million.

Many sympathize with the , right to exist Arabs (known as Palestinians, or foreigners in Israel) who ,can go through the outposts to work outside the area, As long as it doesn’t work, , all is safe. It is necessary to mention the water and electricity in the wall, ,and public services such as medical care are provided free of charge in Israel. The Aaren't more illiterate, , but the womb will produce. A large amount of foreign aid, , including the ““left” in the West, has supported the population explosion in the West Bank and Gaza, but more money has gone into the pockets of the nobility. They buy property overseas, but they fear Israel's fair, free and rule of law civil society become a model for Afghans doesn't that sound

Therefore, Arab citizens and green card holders ,understand these reasons. They are free, ,many are well educated, bilingual, ,and live much better than their compatriots, , and some sects of Arab origin can also participate in the Wehrmacht. Not every Arab is a supporter of terrorists.

In the journey, , I saw young people with weapons on various occasions. Many people speak fluent English, , and I haven’t had trouble taking pictures. In order, you can see the female soldiers on the Jordan River and guarding the Hebrew city, , with photos and conversations. In the blessing of the mountain highland and below the road side, , you can see the guard post of the soldiers. The soldiers looked down at the Ai city below, , and the photos were rare. Then there were the Israeli troops stationed on the border and the Temple Mount. Please note that according to the agreement, , the administrator of the Temple Mount is from the State of Jordan. During his occupation, the King , of Jordan flew over the top of the Temple Mount by plane, , and the Golden Tower was donated by him.

Therefore, the “"just cause" of the Pakistani state was violated and did not dare to mention the history of the Jordanian occupation.

The youth of Israel focused on historical education, , and I saw models of military cadets visiting Jerusalem. They were disciplined , and alive, , and they showed me the powerful secret of this country, , the triumph of civilization over barbarism. We got lost in the desert of the southern part of the country, and we , saw a building from a distance, , and everyone thought it was a nuclear facility. As I said, , a small car was coming, , and the young man pointed out the way out for us, , and he was friendly. Later, the tour guide told the history of nuclear development, , a Jew who resolutely opposed , it and went to prison for leaking secrets, , but later Andu , in Jerusalem, showing that the country's legal system and civil rights were implemented.

Back to the current Gaza Strip“The Israeli-Palestinian ”Conflict, , No“The simple problem is that , both sides know that Israel’s greatest weakness is the polity, ,the rule of law, and the constraints of international public opinion,, which cannot eradicate the soil of terrorism. Israel and all Afghans understand that , , when the Arabs lay down their arms, there will be peace; and if the Jews lay down their arms, , there will be no Israel. Both sides understand that , God’s eternal commitment to both sides of the Bible , cannot destroy anyone. But from the beginning, , , ,the Afghans, that is, to destroy Israel, and after being beaten and afraid, some people accepted their lives. But the black hands behind , it will not stop, and their trick of disguising the cause of justice will continue, , so the people at the bottom of Gaza will pay a greater price.

Introduction in the summary of the ten basic facts of the Chinese

Arab-Israeli Conflict – 10 Basic Facts You Shouldn't Know

In short, the origin of the whole conflict, in short, the Jewish people recognized the right of the Arabs to exist, and the Arabs and the Islamic world did not recognize the Jewish right to exist. This is basic!

Second, the land of Israel (also known as the Palestinian area) after World War II the right to establish an independent state is the result of the Zionist movement's long-term struggle, the region's Arabs have no size of the feat, followed by half of the country is not satisfied, to swallow a family. Palestinian nationalism was developed 67 years later because the Arab countries were beaten by Israel and dared to peep into the mountains, and there was a power vacuum between the Arab and Arab-Israelis. Resisting Britain 47 47years ago, 47 years later, resisting Arab states, not only the establishment of Israel was fought by the Jews, but Palestine's opportunity to establish a state was actually fought by the Jews.

Third, when the General Assembly made the partition resolution, the settlement of the Arab-Israeli issue was carried out within the framework of international consultations, and it was the Arabs who launched the first Middle East war and tried to exterminate Israel, so that the Arab-Israeli dispute was finally transformed into an Arab-Israeli conflict, and the principle of violence became a game of the game.

During the First Middle East War, the number of Jewish refugees fleeing the Arab world and the number of Arab refugees fleeing Palestine was roughly the same, ranging from 600,000 to 800,000. Israel has obscuriously absorbed its own refugees, and has made great efforts to integrate them into an Israeli society dominated by Western Jews, without reaching out to the international community for a penny or to make its own solution to the refugee problem a prerequisite for peace. In contrast, Arab countries, with the exception of Jordan, mostly detained Palestinian refugees in refugee camps, severely banned their social integration with the local community, deliberately created and expanded the Palestine refugee problem, and placed the international community burdened the lives of refugees. At the same time, the issue of the so-called right of return of Palestinian refugees has been a major obstacle to peace between Israel and Palestine.

From the friction between Jews and the Arabs in the Israeli land in the 1920s, to the beginning of the Israeli-Palestinian peace process in the 1990s, almost all the proposals for peaceful coexistence were rejected by the Jews by the Arabs, with the exception of Sadat.

Jerusalem has become a holy site for Judaism at least around 1000 BC, and it was a holy place in Islam as early as the 7th century A.D. (the first Muslims prayed to Jerusalem rather than Mecca). After the Crusades, Jerusalem was left out of the Islamic period until the Jews returned and rekindled.

From the Arab-Israeli ceasefire in 1948 to the outbreak of the Six-Day War in 1967, 20Arabs have occupied Palestinian territory, including East Jerusalem, which is larger than the land that the international community has given to the Palestinians today, but has never been established. Israel had no influence in the region during this period. The Palestinian state has nothing to do with Israel.

The Jews established the kingdom on this land at least three times (the ancient kingdom of Israel, the Maccabi kingdom, modern Israel), established effective rule“”, and the "Palestinian" did not once.

Today, more than a million Arab citizens live in the small territory of Israel, enjoying all the rights granted to them by liberal democracy, including the right to march in protest against hostile nations in times of war. In the vast Arab territory, there are only a few thousand Jews living in the region, the vast majority of whom live in North Africa (in relatively moderate countries such as Tunisia and Morocco), and even in Tunisia, the most successful democracy, the draft constitution makes any relationship with Israel or Israelis a crime.

Ten, despite more than 60 years of war smoke, but from cherry tomatoes to computer flash memory, the brilliant modern Israeli civilization of invention and creation is affecting the daily life of each of us; 8 million people of the country to the world has contributed 9 Nobel Prize winners! What has the Arab world done to humanity in these 60 years?

What is justice in this world! There is an idiot's online name on the pipeline that is "fire is both justice"! In history, the winner is justice and the loser is evil. Because the loser has no chance to defend, any shit pot can be buckled on the loser's head. For example, "Zhang Xianzhong Tu Sichuan", obviously full of soldiers in Sichuan, Sichuan people under the leadership of Zhang Xianzhong struggle to resist, the Qing soldiers almost Sichuan slaughtered, the result of the crime are placed to Zhang Xianzhong head! Han attacked the Huns, full of liquidation, are all extricated genocide, but who has avenged them?

History will make people remember the past, but it is difficult to become a reason for the demand in reality. We look at reality – to see if a party is benefiting its own people, not harming its own people. War is a military thing, a man’s game, a soldier in war and conflict should adhere to the most basic moral line of humanity, protect innocent people and women and children, rather than slaughter and kidnap them. Justice can be interpreted differently on the basis of the interests of each nation, but human morality is indeed universal, otherwise the empty slogan of justice can only fool the restless people. Under the banner of justice, doing things that break through the bottom line of human morality, this is what Hamas, the cancer of mankind, is doing now, and these scum must be removed from the earth!

I raised Zhang Xianzhong, Huns, and the return of Xijiang was destroyed, and you can't see it? What other fact? In World War II, the holy land of democracy in the United States did not support Hitler, who came to power in the democratic elections, but supported the dictatorial communist country of the Soviet Union and the constitutional monarchy of Great Britain! Isn't it weird? Where is justice?

Before Pearl Harbor, the United States oil, steel, and capital all poured into Japan, turning a blind eye to Japan's annexation of Korea and invasion of China, and losing nothing to China's resistance to Japan! It was only after Pearl Harbor that it was discovered that China could contain and consume Japanese power that it began to have US aid. It is the United States that has equipped the national army, put a large part of China's land in ruins, and went to Myanmar to fight in Myanmar in order to achieve the strategic purpose of the United States! Where is justice?

Since there is no justice in this world, is it any more meaningful to give any example? The act of fabricating, distorting, covering up, and telling the brain that is all true can also be said to be justice.

So you can ask yourself what the definition and concept of justice are, and whether it is related to the facts. Why do you have to spell so many words, it is better to arrange the song to vent emotions or fight with your fists?

There are a few openings that there is no justice in this world, and the first general complaint, and then chopping a large article to support their own expression of justice? This is one of the common logical fallacies in rational space – straw man logic fallacy.

> The original realm of the dragon knife: your head is so elm! The so-called "human justice" in people's mouths is the aura of the winner! Two things about moral justice! History has proved that most moral justice is a loser! That's why the saint is trapped in Chen Cai

The key is that you yourself have right or wrong, ethical and moral values, if you do not have a consistent definition and concept, lack of abstract thinking of philosophy, fact or opinion are confused, general conclusions, and wrong judgment has nothing to do with, where is the consistent basis of analytical judgment? What is the meaning of the slogan of justice, yes or no, and what is the meaning of affirmation or negation?

That makes it easy to praise others, attack others, and fall into the contradiction of their own opinions.

The addition of the word "human" to deal with the word justice is nothing more than the size of the scope of application, whether a person's behavior, a group of people, a society, human beings, or the universe. It has little to do with the value of definitions and concepts. So it’s more appropriate to start thinking about these concepts first, starting with yourself.

Not even in abstract thinking. So first look at a step.

For example, you personally believe that the killing of innocent civilians and the abduction of women and children as hostages are just or unjust. If you think this is an act of injustice and you do not do this yourself, it means that you, as a member of the world, there is justice, and your values are consistent with your actions?

To give another example, if you think rape (assuming your definition and concept is clear) is a just or unjust act, if you also think it is unjust, so you don't do it, and there are countless people on earth who do not do rape, how can you come to this general conclusion: There is no justice on earth? Is it all weak food?

Or, on the other hand, you did not rape and wrongly you said that you did this thing, is this wrong your behavior just or unjust? These can be made right and wrong, the unanimous judgment of justice and injustice, that is, it has nothing to do with you and him, the right to attach conditions to other interests, there is only one: the injustice of the unjust act. With a stable right-to-righteous judgment and measurement basis, it is possible to pay attention to facts, make judgments on factual basis, and reduce unjust acts of injustice.

What is the Balfour Declaration?
More than 100 years ago, on 2 November 1917, the British Foreign Secretary, Arthur Balfour, wrote a letter to Lionel Walter Rothschild, the puppet leader of the British Jewish community.
The letter is short, only 67 words, but its contents have had a shocking impact on Palestine and are still being felt today.
It promised the British government to “establish a national home for the Jewish people in Palestine” and to promote “achieving this goal.” This letter is known as the Balfour Declaration.
In essence, the European powers promised the Zionist movement the establishment of a state with more than 90 percent of the population of Palestinian Arabs.
The British Mandate was established in 1923 and lasted until 1948. During this period, Britain promoted mass Jewish immigration (many of the new inhabitants were fleeing Nazism in Europe), and they also faced protests and strikes. Palestinians were alarmed by the changes in the demographic structure of their country and the British confiscation of their land and the handover of their land to Jewish settlers.

The above text is copied from the Internet, is it true that if the British are distressed, they should find a land in the United Kingdom to establish a land for the Jews, rather than taking other people's land to the Jewish statehood and conserving others. If everyone else had gone as if the Jews had left a thousand years before they came back to statehood, would there be peace in the world, and the Indians of North America would not have been able to build a nation?
The British have made much hatred for the world, Israel and Pakistan, India and India, and Fukushima in Argentina, please tell the moderator. The moderator is not deliberately ignoring the fact that it happened from the millennium to the last century.
What the two sides do is not what civilized people should do, and the third party should not be biased and seem to be fair.

The temple works hard. In 1517, the Ottoman Empire ruled Palestine and was accepted by the British Empire in 1917. Thirty years later, the Jewish Zionist movement began to return to their homeland. The Jews were expelled from the Roman Empire, the Arabs living in Palestine, and never established a nation-state. The Arabs never established a state in Palestine. Since there is no country, the claim of sovereign territory related to the relevant content of the state is based on what? What qualifications require that no one else can live there to establish a state party? In 1948, Palestine had 700,000 Arab inhabitants and about 300,000 Jews, and the United Nations proposed that the two main inhabitants be established separately in accordance with the existing settlements, and if the Arabs had agreed at that time, there would have been no later problems. If you have to decide on land that do not belong to you, the overlord hard bowed, and the result is this. In other words, Israel, though old, was at least forced to migrate. The Arabs have not even died, what is the territorial sovereignty? The joke.

Seven, let's look at the learning. Let’s see if we can analyze it this way –

In 1917, the Jewish section began to brew the Zionists, and the British proposed a declaration in order to sympathize with the resettlement of Jews, the Balfour declaration, in support of Jewish restoration. “Nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.” This implies that the civil rights of non-Jews cannot be discriminated against in the country, nor can the political authority of Jews be extended to other countries.

There are two problems: a lack of detail; and a lack of consensus with Palestinian Arabs. The United Nations in the early days after World War II established certain procedures and rules in accordance with the concept of democracy, but it is not so detailed and complete.

These are all part of the political category, mixed with existing historical issues such as religious belief and race. Although after a long period of debate, there are still many specific distribution issues in the field of land rights, and there will be corresponding implementation measures immediately after the United Nations recognition in 48 years.

The perpetration of the resolution, coupled with the various rude acts of the law enforcement process, exacerbated the discontent until the war.

Common sense: all parties feel unjust and unconvinced, and there was no notion of excessive law enforcement in that era, there would be resistance to excessive law enforcement, and excessive resistance would provoke counterattack. How can you judge so carefully?

Is it more meaningful to think that all these comprehensive historical factors are aimed at a comprehensive understanding of the facts and the current way of solving problems, and the individual's comprehensive judgment on these issues does not seem to make much sense?

Floppy said the idea. Today, it seems that after the announcement of the proposal by the United Nations, the Arabs expressed their dissatisfaction, and the establishment of the Israeli state should be postponed a little, to see what the differences between the two sides are. Whether dissatisfaction was unfair to the proposal (the Jews were wealthy, the land they might occupy was not in a coordinated proportion of the population) and whether there was any compromise.

Seven Forks Archie : Fuping Bo came to the point. Today, it seems that after the announcement of the proposal by the United Nations, the Arabs expressed their dissatisfaction, and the establishment of the Israeli state should be postponed a little, to see what the differences between the two sides are. Dissatisfaction is unfair to the proposal (Jewish wealth)

Yes. When it comes to everyone's vital interests, one is the need for the affected people to have the opportunity to express their participation as much as possible; the second is the need to have a certain level of education, can fully express reasons, persuasive, not just feel; the third is the need for careful rule-making, the new country is equivalent to the end from the top to the next pole, many law enforcement guidelines are not in place. These are the key quality of democratic methods, high consensus, and less chaos in implementation. There is a long process of maturity.

The Jews were highly educated and suffering, so they kept themselves safe.

Extremists are prone to these grievances and hatreds, even if in their eyes are the fault of others into their own arbitrary actions, in the name of God want to destroy each other, which will lead to extreme consequences. The extremists themselves may not care about the consequences, but they have brought huge and unpredictable disasters to countless people on both sides.

When I watched the video, I used to get the impression that in the first war in the Middle East in 48 years, the Afghans did not pay attention to the Jews at all. The gap is too big. The latter had only militiamen who had fought with the British, and had no weapons, and many had just come out of the concentration camps. The Afghans are a multinational regular army. The international conditions for the independence of the Arabs were extremely superior, and the Jews were divided into deserts. Any superior conditions proposed in theory will not be accepted by the Afghan people. They believed that the Jews had no bargaining power and resistance to prevent them from building. However, after the failure of the war, the Jews successfully used the negotiations, delayed time, and used the arrogance and gap time of the Arabs to form manpower, waiting for the supply, and finally flipped.

Please look at the above message, the Albanian side never thought that the wisdom of 101 nights would overturn the ship. It starts to get cocky, and it’s behind it.

“If the Arabs had agreed at the time, there would have been no later problems. It is necessary to decide on land ownership in land that does not belong to you, and the overlord hard bows, and so it becomes.”

The lack of consensus refers to the United Nations recognition of the United States before the 48-year war is after?

Consensus refers to the fact that A.A. disagreed at the time, not that modern people think they should agree. The consensus itself also includes the people who fight for them, because when the general education is not enough, the people will only be incited by a minority.

So, there is a Zionist movement on the Israeli side, there are militia groups, and there is a popular base; and the Arab side is basically a top-level transaction, which is not a matter for the people.

The basic fact is that Palestine is a country. Hamas is the democratically elected political force of the people of the State of Palestine, which defeated Fatah in elections and then took control of Gaza by the armed forces. In other words, Hamas acts with the support of a considerable part of the Palestinians, including Hamas, which acts in all its acts of terror and against humanity. The people of Gaza are pitiful, pitiful, but when the avalanches, not a single snowflake is innocent...
